In the space below, please list all of the remaining courses and associated credits you will need to graduate from your high school. You should also provide any additional information about what is required to fulfill each requirement. For example, if a Civics requirement must be a Political Science course, please make a note to that effect. If an Economics course would also suffice, let us know. One of the benefits of Early College is for students to enroll in courses that may not be offered at their high school; Castleton advisors will facilitate that type of exploration within the requirements you include below.
