

Castleton University

Customized, Coached Education Courses

Are you or a group of educators in your district interested in designing a 1, 2 or 3 credit, customized course, in one of the following special education or general education areas?

1. Co-teaching for Proficiency (K-12)
2. Cooperative Learning (K-12)
3. Universal Design for Learning (K-12)
3. Differentiated Instruction to Support Students with Learning Differences in the Regular Classroom (K-12)
4. Strategies for Students with Intensive Special Education Needs (students with significant challenges and other complex and challenging behaviors) (K-12)
5. Responsible Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) in the Classroom (K-12)
6. Or, other possible areas of interest which will support your professional development.

These courses are delivered in a coaching model by Dr. Maria Bove and in a blended format with meetings at your school and at times that are convenient for you with independent/online work in between. This format allows for flexibility and creativity in meeting your unique needs. Course start and end dates can be determined by course participant(s).

*These could be individual or small group on-site courses.

For more information on the course format or to further discuss these opportunities, please contact Dr. Maria Bove, malena8@aol.com, 802.779.8575.